

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

DANNY L. ABBOTT, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

V.

THE UNITED STATES,

Defendant.

No. 15-211L

Filed February 19, 2021

SCHEDULING ORDER

On February 12, 2021, the government filed an unopposed motion for leave to file certain exhibits in support of its response and opposition to plaintiffs’ motion for partial summary judgment and cross-motion for partial summary judgment. ECF No. 129. In the motion, government counsel represents that these exhibits were not originally filed with the government’s cross-motion due to technical difficulties. Government counsel also represents that plaintiffs do not oppose this motion, but that plaintiffs request that the remaining deadlines in the Court’s January 13, 2021, Scheduling Order be extended by one week to account for the delay in their receipt of all of the government’s exhibits.

In light of the foregoing, and for good cause shown, the Court GRANTS the government's motion for leave to file certain exhibits in support of its response and opposition to plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment and cross-motion for partial summary judgment. The Court, with the assistance of the parties, modifies the Scheduling Order dated January 13, 2021, as follows:

Plaintiffs shall FILE a reply in support of their motion for partial summary judgment and a response to the government's cross-motion for partial summary judgment.

March 18, 2021

The government shall FILE a reply in support of its cross-motion for partial summary judgment.

April 15, 2021

IT IS SO ORDERED.
